To whom it may concern,

I am doing some investigation to this website and hope that you can answer the following questions. You are currently using Mr. McKean's legal name along with photographs of him and his family. Do you currently have a release from Mr. McKean to use his legal name and the posting of personal pictures? I have also been made aware that some of the audio and literature that you have posted is under copy right law and can not be used without written consent. Do you have release of permission to use this on your website?

I look forward to hearing from you.

John
