Jen,

Please make sure that you read the legal notice at the end of this email and should it not be a part of this email please contact myself for that notice via this email address.

I have contacted your web host and informed them of the "Rights" that you are violating. I want to also inform you that you are in direct violation of your web host "Terms and Conditions" (8) Member Conduct (f).(see below) By your actions it is apparent that you clearly understand what you are doing but have shown no desire to comply with the legal department of your web host or Federal and State Laws.

Since you do not have permission from the Portland International Church of Christ you are instructed to remove all material from your website(s) immediately. If you do not, I will be forced to file legal action against you and will seek the maximum amount for damages, attorney fees and any other cost associated to that action.

I believe that you will be able to make the correct judgment in this matter. Should you need to speak with myself personally, please feel free to contact me. I will also need to know your intent in this matter and how you would like to proceed. Thank you for your time and concern in this matter.

Russell Preston
